MOUNTAIN BIKING

The cyclists took part in the Contermanskloof Eliminator Series this past weekend. Their results were as follows:

U14 Division

Tristan Samuels-Bronee placed fourth in the second round, Joshua Tudor fourth in the third round and Kai von During third in the third round.

U16 Division

Luke Moir placed first overall, Matthew Clark fourth in the third round and James Paul third in the third round.

U19 Division

Jamie Sher won the first round, but placed third in the third round. Campbell White placed sixth in the second round.

Luke Moir took part in the Western Cape Mountain Bike Championships, held at Bloemedal Wine Estate, placing second in the U16 Youth Boys Category.

SACS MUSIC

Members of the Concert Band and the Junior Jazz Band, conducted by Mr Alexander and Mrs Mdloyi, performed at Peers Village in Fish Hoek on the evening of Thursday 18 May. They were warmly received and played the repertoire that will be performed during the European tour in July. Enthusiastic applause followed each number and drew much praise from the residents of Peers Village. Congratulations for being great ambassadors.

THIS WEEKEND

Our hockey teams play against various schools and our rugby teams against Durbanville this weekend.

The First Hockey team play against Edgemoed High School on Friday at 5:45pm on the SACS AstroTurf (H) and the First Rugby Team on Saturday at 12:00pm on A field, Durbanville (A).

Yours sincerely
