

THE SOUTH AFRICAN COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL (SACS) CODE OF CONDUCT

1. Philosophy and General Guidelines

- 1.1. SACS is committed to providing a disciplined environment for the delivery of quality teaching and learning. The School believes that the only discipline of real significance is that which the individual imposes upon himself. This Code is therefore not a set of measures for punishment, but aims to create a culture of positive behaviour based upon a sense of personal responsibility for one's own conduct. 'Unbecoming conduct' or behaviour refers to the conduct that is contrary to the public interests, or which harms the standing of an institution in the eyes of the public. It is not appropriate, attractive, or flattering including unbecoming dress and not in accord with the standards implied for the role or position of a learner.
- 1.2. SACS welcomes and embraces boys of all races, faiths, cultural backgrounds and sexual orientation. This Code is premised on the School's commitment to the ideals of a non-discriminatory and democratic South Africa. It is guided by the School's aspiration to create a community that is inclusive, diverse, and transformed, with learners who subscribe to the values of respect, equality, honour and integrity.
- 1.3. The Code of Conduct applies to all learners while on the School premises or off the School premises where the learner is representing or attending a School function. Where a learner is in their parent's or guardian's care, the School reserves the right to act should reputational damage be done to the name of the School.
- 1.4. The objectives of the Code can be achieved where the primary stakeholders of the school (learners, educators, school management and parents) play their unique roles. This requires a common understanding of their rights and responsibilities. The common understanding of what constitutes the rights and responsibilities of the primary stakeholders is hereby outlined. The responsibilities of other key stakeholders may be found here.
- 1.5. SACS is founded upon a culture of student leadership and responsibility. Student leaders are expected to be role models and facilitate an environment of cooperation and discipline through which learners respect and observe the Code. The details of the responsibilities of different leaders among the learner community are hereby outlined.
- 1.6. The Code should be read in conjunction with the following:
 - 1.6.1.1. Relevant statutory and subsidiary legislation pertaining to access to quality education without discrimination, including the provision of education. Regulations. WCED Guidelines. Dept Basic Education guidelines.
 - 1.6.1.2. The SACS vision and mission and values.
 - 1.6.1.3. All applicable School policies that regulate the behaviour of the learner.
- 1.6.2. The administration of the Code of Conduct shall be the responsibility of the Disciplinary Committee of the School Governing Body.
